

Orientation

New Probation Officer's Orientation

General Information

In accordance with the minimum qualifications for probation officers that became effective on July 1, 1984, a probation officer is required to attend the orientation program within one year from the date that he/she is employed. However, the Center recommends that a new officer attend within the first 6 months of employment.

PROGRAM OVERVIEW

The orientation program will feature presentations on adult and juvenile procedures, an overview of the skills and techniques of investigation and interviewing and supervision of probationers. The faculty will consist of judges, probation officers and other professional presenters. Materials of interest to probation officers will be distributed at the orientation.

Orientation will be presented:

October 10 — 13, 2006

Orientation will be held in the Indianapolis metro area.

PRE-REGISTRATION

To attend the orientation, all tentative participants must pre-register for this event. In order to pre-register, each individual attendee must return a separate response form return form to Teri Simmons, fax: (317) 233-3367 or mail to the Indiana Judicial Center at 115 W. Washington Street, Suite 1075, Indianapolis, IN 46204, no later than Friday, September 22, 2006 to reserve a place at the orientation and meals. Please keep in mind that in order to process your response form, all information needs to be typed or printed neatly and completed in its entirety. Please use your proper given name.

The probation officer's supervising judge must affirm on each registration form that the salary of the participant attending the orientation complies with the Schedule of Minimum Salaries Standard and pro-rata for "part-time" officers.

CONFIRMATIONS

A confirmation letter with a map and directions will be sent approximately 2 weeks prior to orientation.

REGISTRATION

Registration will be between 9:00 and 9:30 a.m. on Tuesday. In addition, all attendees must check in and register each morning prior to the start of the daily session to receive credit for attendance at the orientation. Orientation will begin promptly at 9:30 a.m. on Tuesday, and adjourn at 3:00 p.m. on Friday.

MEAL INFORMATION

Lunch will be provided at the orientation. Conferees are on their own for all other meals.

MILEAGE EXPENSE

The Center will not be able to reimburse mileage. It is our hope that your department will be able to reimburse its officers for mileage and other related expenses.

CONFERENCE ATTIRE

Attire at the orientation is business/casual. Attendees may want to consider bringing a light sweater or jacket as the air conditioning will be on in the hotel and conference center.
